

ANNUAL LEAVE POLICY

1. Entitlement

All full-time employees are entitled to 25 days of paid annual leave per calendar year, in addition to 8 public holidays. Part-time employees receive a pro-rata entitlement based on their contracted hours.

New joiners receive a pro-rata entitlement for their first year, calculated from their start date. After 5 years of continuous service, employees receive an additional 2 days per year, up to a maximum of 30 days.

2. Booking Leave

Leave must be requested through the Company's HR portal at least 5 working days in advance for requests of 1-3 days, and at least 15 working days in advance for requests of 4 or more consecutive days.

Managers must respond to leave requests within 3 working days. Leave approval is subject to business needs and team coverage requirements. No more than 2 consecutive weeks may be taken at one time without senior management approval.

During peak business periods (December and end of financial year), leave requests may be restricted. The Company will communicate blackout periods at least 30 days in advance.

3. Carry-Over

Employees may carry forward a maximum of 5 unused leave days into the next calendar year. Carried-forward days must be used by 31 March of the following year, after which they are forfeited.

In exceptional circumstances (e.g., extended sick leave preventing use of annual leave), the HR Director may approve additional carry-over on a case-by-case basis.

Employees are encouraged to take their full leave entitlement each year for wellbeing purposes. Managers must ensure team members take a minimum of 15 days annually.

4. Leave During Notice Period

During the notice period, employees may use accrued but untaken leave only with management approval. The Company reserves the right to require employees to take outstanding leave during their notice period.

Any untaken leave at the termination date will be paid out at the Employee's daily rate. Conversely, if the Employee has taken more leave than accrued, the excess will be deducted from the final salary payment.

5. Sick Leave During Annual Leave

If an employee falls ill during a period of annual leave, the leave days may be recredited as sick leave, provided the employee: (a) notifies their manager on the first day of illness; (b) obtains a medical certificate from a registered practitioner; (c) submits the certificate to HR within 5 days of return.

A minimum of 2 consecutive days of illness is required for annual leave to be recredited.

6. Compassionate and Emergency Leave

Up to 5 days of paid compassionate leave is granted for bereavement of an immediate family member (spouse, parent, child, or sibling). Additional unpaid leave may be approved at management discretion.

In cases of household emergencies (e.g., flooding, break-in), up to 2 days of paid emergency leave may be taken. Evidence may be required.
